Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Sadlier s Dominion Fourth Reader: Revised and Enlarged Earnest and well-directed effort in the use of this concluding volume of the Series must result in success. The Elocutionary Treatise should be thoroughly taught from the first. Require students to commit to memory and recite the important principles, definitions, and examples. Employ these Lessons for Readings, and apply the principles daily, in all recitations and conversations, until their right use shall become easy, uniform, and habitual. The Readings of Part Second, while illustrating most felicitously and in extenso all the Elements of Elocution, afford mental nutriment of the highest order for a literary education which shall develop and unfold both the practical and the ideal man. Now, if ever, the student must acquire a love for a pure, finished, manly style - for the genuine prose and verse which refine, strengthen, ennoble, give wholesome conceptions of life, and minister alike to mental and spiritual growth. Require a Special Preparation before each Reading, which shall enable the student, without formal questions, to give, first the Title of the Piece; secondly, the words liable to mispronunciation in the Reading and the Notes; thirdly, all needful definitions, explanations, and biographical sketches, either immediately connected with the Lesson, or found by reference to the Index to Notes; fourthly, a summary of the Reading, in his own language; and fifthly, the moral, conclusion, or outcome. Direct his attention daily to the character of the composition - its grammatical construction, rhetorical figures, logical arrangement, etc. The Index to the Notes is of the utmost importance, and ought to be employed daily. Make special efforts to give pupils great facility in its use....
