Excerpt from Abingdon, Virginia: A Sketch of Its History and Attractions The flourishing seat of justice for Washington County, Virginia, was incorporated by the General Assembly in the year 1778. The county was established by an act passed in October, 1776, and was the first county in any State named for The Father of his Country, who had then been for several months in the field at the head of the Continental army, which was just fairly entering upon the great seven years struggle for national independence, and the founding of a republican form of government based upon the sovereignty of the people, and deriving all its just powers from the consent of the governed - the grandest conception of human government ever evolved from the mind of man, and so in conflict with the history of the past as to be justly styled the War of the Revolution. Although established by law in October, 1776, Washington county did not perfect its civil and military organization until January 28th, 1777. The county included within its original boundary...
