NO WALKS? NO WORRIES!: MAINTAINING WELLBEING IN DOGS ON RESTRICTED EXERCISE

Veloce Publishing Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, No Walks? No Worries!: Maintaining Wellbeing in Dogs on Restricted Exercise, Helen Zulch, Peter Baumber, Sian Ryan, "He's going to need six weeks crate rest; just keep him quiet while he recovers." These words - which often form part of the treatment requirements for dogs undergoing surgery, or requiring long-term medical care - can strike fear and dread into a dog-owner's heart. Not a lot of advice is available regarding appropriate mental and emotional support for dogs whilst their usual exercise is limited, and owners are left to manage as best they can, which can be stressful for both owner and dog, and can lead to behaviour changes and problems. This unique book, written by professionals in their field, aims to help owners identify the individual needs of their dog, and, in addition, offer support in preparing their dog for a period of restricted exercise, when surgical interventions are planned. Ideas and tips for mental stimulation and emotional support - as well as alternatives to physical exercise and guidance on how to teach specific skills - are included. Beautiful, specially-taken photographs illustrate every chapter, and worksheets enable owners to chart the progress of their dog's care plan.
