Existentialism

By David R. Cerbone

Hodder Stoughton General Division, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 178 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. What do you have to do to be an individual? This is the question at the heart of existentialism and it informs this book's exploration of the existentialist tradition in 19th and 20th century philosophy. Existentialism: All That Matters considers each of the key figures - Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, Heidegger, Sartre, Camus and de Beauvoir - who all offer related, though distinct, conceptions of the task of becoming an individual. David Cerbone's book gives a fascinating introduction to existentialism and what matters most about it. ABOUT THE SERIES: All That Matters books are written by the world's leading experts, to introduce the most exciting and relevant areas of important topics to students and general readers. From Bioethics to Muhammad and Philosophy to Sustainability, the All That Matters series covers the most controversial and engaging topics from science, philosophy, history, religion and other fields. The authors are world-class academics or leading public intellectuals, on a mission to bring the most interesting and challenging areas of their subject to new readers.
