Holly.

By Don Scribner

America Star Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Holly Montgomery had settled into her post-coma routine and was enjoying a much needed peaceful home-life with Earl and the kids when things began to stir inside her. Her position at the Denver branch of the FBI forensic lab was done more or less by rote and posed no real challenge to her skills. Her life had begun to just drift by, that is until an unscheduled roadside stop changed things. Holly's life turned in an instant, and as if by fate, a meeting with her lab supervisor started her on an adventure that would fulfill her repressed wishes. Those wishes were to be more like coma-Holly than lab assistant Holly. And so, as a request from the Sacramento branch of the FBI, she departed on a trip that would take her from Colorado to the beautiful Delta shores of California and from the local police department to unwinding a series of murders with an Aztec Gods underscore. Along the way making friends with some the FBI's best field operatives the agency had to...
