Excerpt: .seen things that no scientist has ever been able to discover. The fact is, Mr. Know-all likes to pose as a well of useful information. He has probably heard the assertion made by an ignorant nurse, when he was a little boy, and thinks it may be a useful piece of knowledge to air to his credulous friends. So far is it from being the truth that, if he can name the factory in question, he can claim a very large reward (JE400,1 think), offered by a syndicate of large bee-keepers in order to disprove the lie! The reward has been offered and advertised for several years now. Is it not a little strange that some of the dozens of friends of Mr. Knowall have not claimed it yet? No. You may make up your mind to it that all comb-honey is genuine, and that...
