Apple Valley Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 128 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in.What is happening to Christianity Is worldwide Christianity in decline or is it entering a period of change and growth Has religious belief been transformed by the popular ideas of Darwin, Freud, Hugh Hefner and others How are we personally affected by increasing cultural change, and, most importantly, does Christ continue to make a difference in the modern world This well researched book explores both modern culture and science and shows how they impact our thinking and Christianity. It describes the influence of television and our media driven world and illustrates the spectacular growth of Christianity in other countries. The book provides insights that may enable us to act with greater freedom. It may even change the way we think about God. An enlightening read. Preface Polls show declining attendance at Christian churches in Europe. In America, many young adults are not part of any Christian congregation. Church schools close each year, and some of the great cathedrals of Europe exist more as museums than places of worship. Yet in other places, in other countries, Christianity is strong and growing. What is the state of Christianity today, the two thousand year old faith tradition of Europe and the Americas Our society is changing and so is religion. Culture has been transformed. The pattern of human life, though never simple, has been altered, probably forever. For thousands of years, most people went to bed soon after the sun went down and rose when the sun came up. Then, late in the nineteenth century, and more commonly in the twentieth, major changes began to affect our lives. These changes have become ever more pervasive in recent years. It all started with the magic of electricity. Besides lighting...
