Scribner Book Company. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 256 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.3in. x 0.8in. Patricia Marx is one of the finest comic writers of her time, as readers of The New Yorker and fans of Saturday Night Live already know. Her fiction debut is an endlessly entertaining comic novel about one woman's romantic fixation on her first boyfriend. Marx's unabashedly neurotic heroine falls for philosopher Eugene Obello during her graduate school days in Cambridge, England. Why would anyone fall for a man who receives a grant to pursue Ego Studies? Why would that person remain obsessed, even after this guy marries and becomes a father? By obsessed, we mean, well . . . sex and lust and longing and hoping and waiting for this cad who is spread too thin. Her friends loathe him. Why can't she drop him? Is it because she was the only virgin on campus before she bumped into Eugene (a man who was hardly a virgin)? Is it because he kept a copy of the Magna Carta in his pocket? You know what I think it really was, she reflects. He was a narcissist. I love narcissists. . . . you don't have to buoy them up. When things get unbearable, our girl gives up trying to write her thesis -- and tries to give up on Eugene. She says good-bye to her dormitory room, decorated in a color she calls veal, and becomes a TV writer in New York on the hit sketch-comedy show Taped But Proud. Coincidentally, Eugene moves to New York as well -- to teach a seminar called Toward a Philosophy of the Number Two (And if that goes well, he says, they might let me have a go at the number three). More years of lust and longing, hoping and waiting....
