By Charlotte Schwoerke

Charlotte Schwoerke, United States, 2014. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Join me on a series of adventures to see the United States from a unique perspective-the back of a horse. My quest to ride a different horse in each state took more than ten years to complete. This book is not only for horse lovers but also for the explorer in each of us. The incredible beauty and variety of America comes to life in this book of discoveries on horseback. Journey along black sand beaches of Alaska, and breathtaking but dangerous Badlands of North Dakota. See the blaze of vivid reds and purples on the bizarre rock formations in Bryce Canyon, Utah. Hear the crashing ocean waves of untamed Oregon. These panoramic and spectacular images are caught on camera in each state. Explore historic Jeckell Island in Georgia, and journey the same trail General Custer took on his last battle. Ride along the 200-year old Chesapeake and Ohio Canal in Maryland, and take a look into the legendary area where Rip Van Winkle slept in the Catskills. Ride on Mackinac Island, Michigan, where no motorized...
