Excerpt from Washington's Church: An Historical Sketch of Old Christ Church, Alexandria, Virginia, Together With a Brief Description of the Centenary Services Therein, November 20 and 21st, 1873 In Offering the following pages to the public it is proper to give a brief outlines of the character of the religious service which celebrated the Centennial Anniversary of our Church. At an early hour on the evening of Thursday, the 20th of November, 1873, a large congregation had assembled, eager to witness the interesting ceremonies. Many may indeed have been drawn by no higher motive than curiosity; but the hearts even of these must have been solemnized by the chaste, beautiful and suggestive decoration which decked those venerable walls. Appropriate texts from God's Holy Word met the eye on every side, telling us we were no idle spectators of a drama, but actors in a living present, linked with those scenes which have no dead past, and whose future stretches on to the Throne of the Great Eternal. On the north wall of the Church we...
