Stickman Publications, Inc., United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Am I experiencing self-deception or something profound? The unexplainable has happened. A prayer has been answered, a gift has been given, a communication has occurred. Is it the voice of God, or the voices in your head? Here s how to find out. In this work, you will discover the organization of the mystical experience. Based on the classic works of G.B Scaramelli, an 18th Century Jesuit Priest, Kris Wilder brings modern relevance to any person to apply to their journey as they seek the Divine. Using examples and principles from Christianity and other religions, Wilder demonstrates that mankind s profound mystical experience crosses cultures and religions. Certain truths are immutable. Understand why mystical and self-generated experiences seem to share similar features Learn the difference between divine communication and self-deception Recognize universal truths of divinity regardless of theology Know why and when the divine reveals itself Discover what forms divine communication takes Discover how to understand and interpret what is happening to you. Learn where it lies in the hierarchy of the mystical experiences. Know the direction you may be going. If you have been blessed with a glimpse of the divine step into the light. Find new meaning from the encounter and learn to make the most of your experiences and those to come.
