Corwin Press, 2016. Softcover. Book Condition: New. Bring novelty into the classroom to get knowledge into students' brains! . Updated throughout . Extremely practical and user-friendly . Full of classroom examples in all content areas and all grade levels that teachers can implement immediately . Based on research and theory while maintaining a completely accessible, teacher-friendly style You can invest time and effort into perfecting your lesson plans, encouraging good student behavior, and ensuring your classroom accommodates every learning style. But if your students don't remember what you teach them, what's the point? Banish this concern forever when you use the strategies in this thoroughly updated third edition of Marcia Tate's bestselling Worksheets Don't Grow Dendrites, which details twenty definitive brain-compatible techniques to maximize retention and minimize forgetting in learners of all ages. Tate's techniques are drawn from the latest neuroscientific research and learning style theory and are described step-by-step for immediate application in your classroom. Learn how to: Incorporate interactive fun to your existing lessons, including field trips, games, humor, and even music and rap Use graphic organizers and word webs to solidify lessons visually Facilitate innovative methods of project-based learning You'll also benefit from new sample lesson plans, activities, and illustrations that reflect the latest research on how students' brains develop and function. With this book, your students will retain the information from your classroom for years to come. Marcia L. Tate, EdD, is the former executive director of professional development for the DeKalb County School System, Decatur, Georgia and has been presenting to adult audiences for more than 25 years. During her 3-year career with the school district, she has been a classroom teacher, reading specialist, language arts coordinator, and staff development executive director. She received the Distinguished Staff Development Award for the State of Georgia, and...
