Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Cottage Gardener, Vol. 4: Practical Guide in Every Department of Horticulture and Rural and Domestic Economy We were quite aware that it savours of rashness to promise of great things yet to be achieved, when we said, in our last address, that we felt assured that at the conclusion of our next volume our readers would not withhold from us their approbation. But we had full confidence in our men at arms; and now that next volume it concluded, we fearlessly look our readers in the face, and ask for the approbation we anticipated. Not one of the able minds devoted to the enrichment of our pages but evinces that its strength is unexhausted; and not one but continues in some mode to repeat, My armour s on, - I would that the lists were wider; and this is shown by what they have done from week to week, and from month to month. Then upon the merit of that strength which they have put forth we also fearlessly ask for approbation; for in no periodical in all our horticultural literature can be found such a mass of sound useful gardening information as within our twopenny pages. We speak firmly upon this, because we have those best of testimonies - old friends continue with us, and a host of new friends come around us. One of the latter write to us thus: I hear from every quarter unqualified praise of your truly admirable publication, as well from brother clergymen as from other parties. I assure you the taking it in has become quite a connecting link between many people who would otherwise have not,...
