Chosen Journey Media, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Wes Choc grew up in Albuquerque, New Mexico, living there until 1965 when he joined the Marine Corps during the Vietnam era. Since the end of his military service in 1969, he worked for the American Automobile Association for over forty years. In 1992 he was appointed president and CEO of AAA MountainWest, overseeing business and club operations in Montana, Wyoming, and Alaska. After retiring from AAA in 2008, he and his wife, Carol, moved to Arizona. Wes has become an active community volunteer. With his TEFL certificate in hand, he spent three months teaching English as a second language in Ecuador. Back at home, Wes tutors English regularly for new US residents. He also mentors homeless and troubled youth. Wes has worked with veterans in Montana and Arizona, especially with vets returning from overseas with PTSD or other disabilities. He is currently an active volunteer at the Tucson Veterans Hospital helping recovering vets. Wes enjoys writing and has recently established his own publishing platform aptly named Chosen Journey Media. With his initial success of Just Dust - An Improbable Marine s Story, Wes went back to work and is delighted to have completed Inconspicuous as a life story told to him by a friend who also served the United States proudly in uniform. Carol and Wes Choc make their home in Tucson, Arizona. With his first work in the books , Wes Choc sought new work after publishing Just Dust. As it turns out, Wes next project lived right across the street. Wes befriended his neighbor, Walter Rothwell. In casual conversation, Wes established that Wally was a spy. After hours and months of casual conversation,...
