Excerpt: . . . and scenic resources; train a new generation of public land managers and enthusiasts; and promote the value of public service; and S. 897, to amend the Surface Mining Control and Reclamation Act of 1977 to clarify that uncertified States and Indian tribes have the authority to use certain payments for certain noncoal reclamation projects. Senator Wyden. Now among the bills that are being considered, this hearing will also include several bills that are important to my home State of Oregon. I'd like to say just a few words about those measures. S. 220, the Oregon Eastside Forest Restoration, Old Growth Protection and Jobs Act was the result of years and years of work and months of negotiations with the timber community and the environmental community. Certainly in our home state nobody ever thought that you could get people like John Shelk of Ochocho Lumber and Andy Kerr, representing the environmental community to come together, but because they both acted in good faith these negotiations resulted in a...
